

Getting started with EleUM

EleUM is part of the digital learning environment of Maastricht University and consists of the widely used learning system Blackboard.

This learning system is being used in a specific way to support the educational system of Maastricht University.

If you are involved as a teacher in one or more courses a course in EleUM will be ready for you some time before the start of the course. You can then start building your course.